A colored Man Dangerously Wounded.
A colored man named John Rhodes, aged thirtyseven years, is now lying at the Pennsylvania Hospital in a very critical condition. He was attacked about 8 o'clock on Sunday morning in the neighborbeed of Sixth and Spafford streets by three suspicions-looking characters. He was asked an impertiment question and he gave an evasive answer, wherespon he was struck by one of the mon, another setzed him around the waist, and the third attempted to rob him. Rhodes is a powerfully-built man, and,
shaking off his assailants, he attempted to escape, not, however, until he had punished one of the highwaymen pretty badly. After freeing himself from the clutches of his assailants, one of the latter, apparently an Italian, followed him up, and, drawing a dagger or knife, plunged it into his hip, inflicting an ngily wound. The robbers then escaped, while Rhodes was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.
The injured man bled profusely, and the sidewalks, all the way from the scene of the occurrence to the hospital, were spotted with blood. Some time after the affair happened a policeman called at the hospital, to which place he was attracted by the line of blood, and inquired if anything serious had occurred,
He was of course made acquainted with the facts,
It is understood that efforts are now being made to arrest the alleged highwaymen. A Colored Man Dangerously Wounded. arrest the alleged highwaymen.

ROBBERY.

$1200 Worth of Dress Trimmings Stolen. The retail store of Mr. William Anderson, No. 1526 Market street, was entered by thieves at an early hour this morning, and goods to the value of $1290 were carried off. Mr. Anderson had on hand a large stock of dress trimmings, consisting of ribbons, velvets, etc., from which the thieves made quite a selection. They effected an entrance by prying open a rear window, and, gaining the entry, they operated on a door leading into the after. This they opened by cutting away the lock by means of a brace and bit and chisel. The robbers are supposed to have entered the store about relief time. posed to have entered the store about relief time Detectives Miller and Fletcher visited the premises this morning and made an examination, in the hope of discovering some fact which might lead to the arrest of the perpetrators of the deed.

FIRE THIS MORNING-JOHN WANAMAKER'S CLOTHing Store Damager.—About 10 o'clock this morning smoke was discovered issuing from the stairway leading from the basement of the immense clothing establishment of John Wanamaker, on Chesnut street above Eighth. An investigation disclosed the pre-sence of fire in the waste-room, which is located about the centre of the building. By this time the smoke filled the cellar, and found an outlet at the windows on both Chesnut and Sansom streets. This attracted large crowds of people and a policeman windows on both Chesnut and Sansom streets. This attracted large crowds of people and a policeman, who started and pulled the box at Eighth and Sansom streets. Chief Engineer Downey repaired to the scene, and quickly ascertaining the extent of the fire, kept himself employed in preventing lines of hose being run into the building. But he had more than he could well attend to, for, despite his exertions, the firemen flooded water into the basement windows on Sansom street, and succeeded in doing an unnecessary amount of damage. In the meantime, a few firemen with buckets quenched the fire. Its origin is unknown at present, but is supposed to have resulted from carelessness displayed posed to have resulted from carelessness displayed by some one of the employes. The loss will reach about $2000, which is fully covered by insurance. The fire did not extend above the first floor, and wastever damage was sustained, except in the way of smoke and water, was confined to the basement. The excitement, as can be well imagined, in the vicinity was very great, and thousands of people were attracted to the spot.

ANNIVERSARY AT TRINITY CHAPKI .- Yesterday morning a large congregation assembled at Trinity P. E. Chapel, corner Twenty-second and Locust streets, the occasion being the second anniversary of the clergyman in charge, Rev. Richard N. Thomas Thomas.

We take the following statistics from the sermon, showing the growth of the Church, and the work done the past year:

The Sunday school numbers 51 teachers, 751 scholars; held every Sunday afternoon. Sewing school, 64 teachers, 430 scholars; held every Saturday morning. Night school, 6 teachers, 260 scholars; held three evenings in the week. 460 families are enrolled above the books of the Chanel.

upon the books of the Chapel.

The Durcas Society has met regularly and made over 300 garments.

The Parish Library has been enlarged, and lectures given at stated intervals during the winter,

During the year 48 children and 4 adults were baptized, and 45 candidates for confirmation were presented. There were 22 deaths. The contributions amounted to about $2000.

When it is borne in mind that this work is carried on prostentationsly in the region of the Schuvikill.

among the poor, the above results may put to shame many a larger and more wealthy congregation. The Chapel is connected with the Parish of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE UPPER DELAWARE CHANNEL.—The sum of $10,000 was appropriated by a late act of Congress for the purpose of aiding in the removal of obstructions in the River Delaware, w Trenton. These consist principally of a large I bar near Perriwig, which is four miles from that city. There is now only one steamboat, the Edwin Forrest, that runs from Trenton to Philadel-phia, and this is obliged to start at a different hour each day in order to be at the bar at high water. If this obstruction to navigation was removed ordi-nary vessels could go all the way from Trenton to the ocean. The Trenton city authorities are ex-pected to assist. Mr. Halght, Representative from the Fifth District, has asked that an engineer be appointed to survey the obstructions. It is thought, however, that the Camden and Amboy Railroad authorities will be sufficiently powerful to prevent any action which will lead even to this much of an encreachment upon their monopoly. The river must remain blockaded to suit them, no matter how much the citizens may suffer.

Important Railroad Gathering.—Ground will be broken on the Shenandoah Valley Railroad, at Front Royal, on Thursday next, with imposing ceremonies. A special train with invited guests will leave Washington on Thursday morning, at 7 o'clock, which will reach Front Royal by 10, and return to Washington by 8 in the evening. Governor Walker, of Virginia, will break ground and deliver an address, and Governor Geary, of Pennsylvania, Governor Bowie, of Maryland, and Colonel McClure, of Pennsylvania, will also attend and deliver addresses. Quite a number of prominent railroad men dresses. Quite a number of prominent railroad men will join the excursion, and, altogether, a pleasant time may be expected. The road is in strong hands and will be prosecuted vigorously from Shepherdstown clear through to Salem, thus making a most direct through line from the commercial cities of the North through the light of the South Cherkold, the light of the South Cherkold. the North through the heart of the South.

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE.—James Folly has been committed by Alderman Randall to answer the charge of an attempted outrage on a little girl at Forty-first and Market streets on Saturday night last. It seems that the child was playing with two little boys on a lot in the locality above mentioned when Folly put in an appearance. He gave the boys some pen-nies, and told them to run off and buy something. Taking advantage of their absence, it is alleged he attempted the outrage. The cries of the little one attracted the attention of some persons passing in the neighborhood, whereupon Folly ran and escaped. He was known, however, and information of the affair was lodged at the station-house, and Police-man McFarland went in search of him. He was subsequently arrested and committed as above

THE POINT BREEZE RACES .- Don't forget the great races at Point Breeze Park, beginning this afternoon and continuing nearly all the week. A large number, from the best of our racing stock are to be on hand and contend for the premiums.

The admission fee is one dollar, and the park can be reached by means of the Union and Thirteenth and Fifteenth Streets Railways, which connect with stages running direct to the spet. The stages run at intervals during the entire day.

BEAT HIS WIFE .- Thomas Macket, residing Philip street and Columbia avenue, was arrested on Saturday night by Officer Flynn, of the Fifteenth district, upon the charge of beating his wife. The accused had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker, and was held in $600 ball to answer. It is a note-worthy fact that persons arrested in the locality e-named are generally charged with wife beat-What a delightful neighborhood!

AN IMPOSTOR .- For some days past an individual has been going the rounds, visiting the large manufacturing establishments in the northwestern section of the city, and collecting money in the name of the Good Will Fire Company. As no one is authorized at present to collect funds for the above named company, our citizens should be on the lookout, and

FROM F. GUTERUNST, No. 712 Arch street, we have received a photographic copy of the ground-plan and elevation of the proposed House of Correction, prepared by James H. Windrim, architect. From this plan we should judge that the buildings, when completed will be admirably adapted for the purpose intended.

PROVED FATAL .- Thomas Bowden, who accidentcity shot himself vesterday morning, on Gray's Ferry road, below the Arsenal, died this morning at his residence, No. 1113 South Tenth street.

Supplex Death.—The Goroner was notified this morning to hold an inquest, at No. 1847 South Front street, upon the body of Auns Maley, who died suddenly about 11 o'clock last night.

CAMDEN POLITICS.

The Election of Delegates and the Nomination of County Officers—The Candidates.

been made by the Republican party. They give almost universal satisfaction. The Democratis hold their county convention to-day, and great anxiety has been expressed to obtain a ticket which will be as popular as that of the Republicans. The Republican candidate for County Clerk is John W. Cain, who was formerly Sheriff of the county for three years, and is a very popular man. The contest will be very hot, though not much hope is expressed by the Democratis themselves that they will be able to carry the day. These nominations are for the election in November.

This evening the primary meetings will be held by the Republicans of Camden for the purpose of electing the delegates who are to represent the city in the convention at which the Congressional candidate is to be chosen. This convention will meet at Vineland on the 5th instant, Thursday of the present week. The most prominent candidates now talked of are the Hon. William Moore, the present incumbent, John W. Hazeitine, a farmer, and John F. Nixon, a lawyer. Besides these there are other scattering candidates, but they are of little strength. The Hon. William Moore, the present incumbent, is the most promising of the three most prominent candidates. He has been the member of Congress from the district for four years. His duties have always been performed with faithfulness and satisfaction to everybody. The only objection to him in the minds of the Jerseyites is that his nomination will break through an established custom of the region, which is to send a new man every term, no matter how satisfactory his administration may have been. How much harm may flow from this the region, which is to send a new man every term, no matter how satisfactory his administration may have been. How much harm may flow from this breach of precedent is not stated. The friends of the other candidates in Camden have determined if possible to defeat the delegates favorable to Mr. Moore at the delegate election this evening, and it will require a very strong effort of his friends to secure his support from that region. of his frends to secure his support from that region. If a complete set of delegates favorable to Mr. Moore from all portions of the district is desired, there should be a good attendance of those favorable to him at the Camden election this evening. The other portions of the district are said to be unaul mous in his favor, so far as the Republican party is that we were in the lager business?

The Democratic Congressional nominating convention will be held on the 21st instant, next Wednesday two weeks, at Woodbury. The candidates with the best charces for the nomination of this party are Benjamin F. Lee, of Cape May, Thomas McKean, of Camden, and A. H. Slate, of Salem.

—The police on Saturday merning arrested two Germans who were fighting heavily at Third and Chesnut streets. On being arraigned before the Mayor, his Honor asked them how in the world they could so far forget their nationality as to be fighting with a fellow-countryman at such an hour of national exultation? The culprits not being able to understand the extended address of his Honor, the services of an interpreter were procured, when it was found that the men had not been fighting at all, but only congratulating each other in their peculiar national congratulating each other in their peculiar national way on the glorious news from the Fatheriand.

—There is a scarcity of lager, caused by the great demand yesterday from the jubilant Germans. O that we were in the lager business!

—A city newspaper last week published the following:—"Queen Olga of Greece says the cable has a daughter." On mature deliberation we think that the Queen is not sufficient authority for this improbable statement. What does she know about the cable's private affairs? We cannot think it of the cable.

Now is the time for the used-up joke about taking a "Nap." It may be found in almost all the morning papers. We were going to use it on Saturday, but wishing to retain a reputation for originality, concluded that we had better not. —We have it from reliable sources that the rail-road train filled with confectioners, captured by the Prussians at Forbach, has been preserved, and that the contents will be distributed as the army marches through the French country, for the purpose of sweetening the French temper. —Let those who are most interested and therefore very exultant over the news from the seat of war, not be carried away with their feelings and suppose that the despatches read somehow in this fashion:— Every French soldier has surrendered. The French nation is annihilated. The whole territory of France is occupied. There cannot possibly be any further resistance. The Prussian Empire will now include the entire French Empire." Good as the news is, it has hardly yet come to this.

—It is a notorious fact that many of the park horses cannot keep up with the park carriages. The cars-riages are light, neat, and comfortable, but only the epithet "light" applies to the majority of the horses. epithet "light" applies to the majority of the horses. They appear to have been bought from oystermen, cab-drivers, or non-paying car companies. But perhaps the popular demand is not such as will pay for better. While every available means is used to beautify the park, it will be well to remember that a living skeleton of a horse is not a joy forever. Another fact worthy of remembrance is that though a moderately good horse costs a little more in the first place, he cats about the same, and is about as expensive to keep as a poorer one. Still another expensive to keep as a poorer one. Still another fact capable of being laid up in the memory is that it is perhaps possible that some few more respectable peeple might be glad to make use of a pars carriage drawn by a good-looking horse, and at the same time be ashamed to be seen behind an animal that carries his ribs on the outside of his skin, has something of a hait in his gait, is somewhat blind in one eye, has a tendency to come to a dead pause occasionally, or never goes above two miles an hour.

PORT WARDENS .- The regular stated meeting of PORT WARDENS.—The regular stated meeting of the Board of Port Wardens was held at noon to-day, Samuel J. Christian, Esq., in the chair. Some unimportant unfinished business was at-tended to, when a motion was made by George W. Hacker that the board proceed to the election of a President to fill the vacancy caused by the decease

This was agreed to, and E. Harper Jeffries, Esq., was nominated. A ballot resulted in that gentleman receiving 10 votes and John W. Everman, Esq., one.

Mr. Jeffries made a few remarks, after which the business of the board was proceeded with.

A resolution was adopted notifying the owner of Reed street wharf on the Delaware to have it put in immediate repair.
On motion of Colonel Clark, the following resolu-

Resolved, That the President of this board be directed to communicate with the City Councils of Chester and call their attention to the act of Assem-bly of March 3, 1864, which authorizes said City Councils, through their surveyor, to prepare and establish within twelve months from the passage of this act a low-water line in front of Delaware county, and forward the same to this board. BOARD OF SURVEYS .- The first meeting of the Board of Surveys subsequent to vacation was held to-day, Mr. Close in the chair. The following ap-plications for the construction and laying of sewers were received and granted :- One, 3 feet, on Frank lin street north from Race street; one, 2 feet, 6 inches, on Leaf street, from Orange to Locust; a 12 inches, on Leaf street, from Orange to Locust; a 12 inch pipe on Carlisle street, north from Poplar street; one, 3 feet, on Buttonwood street, from Franklin to Eighth streets; one, 2 feet 6 inches, on Montgomery avenue, between American and Philip streets; an 8 inch pipe on Fling street, south from Norris street; one, 3 feet, on Sixth street, between Brown and Coates streets. After the transaction of some routine business the Board adjourned.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN War .- On Saturday night a row occurred in a beer saloon at Germantown road and Oxford street, between some of the residents of the Seventeenth ward and several Germans who were drinking beer in celebration of the news of the suc-cess of the Prussian arms. The Germans allege that they were insuited, and that the quarrel was caused by the other party. After a war of words, they came to blows, and about the time the Germans were getting the best of the bargain, a number of the Tenth district police put in an appearance, and arrested eight of the participants, who, after a hear-ing before Alderman Shoemaker, were held in $500 ball each to answer.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE .- On Sunday evening James Rvan is alleged to have attacked and beat a man named Samuel Bazoon at Sixth and Race streets. The cause of the quarrel is not known. Ryan was taken into custody, and after a hearing before Alderman Godbon he was held in five hundred dollars bail to answer.

FUGITIVE PROM JUSTICE .- An individual giving the name of Charles Williams was arrested at Front and South streets, on Saturday night, upon the charge of having committed a robbery somewhere in New Jersey. The prisoner was taken before Al-derman Moore, who surrendered him, on a requisi-

Imposing Popular Bisplay.

Paris, Sept. 5-3:30 P. M .- This city now presents one of the most imposing popular displays ever witnessed. One hundred thousand armed citizens are marching to the Corps Legislatif, surrounding the building amid the frenzied hurrahs of countless masses, which are filling every avence leading to the hall. There are no symptoms of disorder yet, only a unanimous expression of popular will.

Before the residence of General Trochu, in the Louvre, there is a compact mass of people awaiting the return of the Governor. TEH NEW RADICAL MINISTRY.

Napoleon's Future Residence. Paris, Sept. 5 .- An interview has taken place between Napoleon and the King of Prussia, for the purpose of deciding upon the future residence of the Emperor. One of the German fortresses was fixed upon, probably Mayence. Split in the Corps Legislatif.

There was so much confusion in the city, and such immense crowds about the Corps Legislatif, that it is impossible at present to get a faithful account of the business transacted by the deputies. It is now reported, and on good authority, that after the vote of Decheance the majority retired. The members of the Gauche and Centre Gauche (Left and Left Centre) remained, constituting a provisional government, and named the following persons:-Jules Favre, Leon Gambetta, Jules Simon, Count Keratry, M. Explosion of a Locomotive and Loss of Life. POTTSVILLE, Sept. 5 .- The engine Swatara exploded her boiler on the Mill Creek Railroad, near St. Clair, at 8 o'clock this morning, while standing on the siding with a train of coal cars, waiting for a passenger train to pass. The enine was completely wrecked, and pieces of the boiler were blown several hundred feet. The fireman, Patrick Cassidy, of Palo Alto, was blown through the air. His body, without the legs, was found four hundred feet from the wreck. He leaves a wife and several children. The engineer, James Martin, of Port Carbon, had his collar-bone broken and back injured, and lies in a critical condition. The cause of the explosion is a mystery, as the engine had come from the Reading in March last and was in good condition. The track was wrecked, but was repaired by noon. The Coroner is now holding an inquest and taking testimony in regard to the cause of explosion and condition of

The Butler Case. The Butler Case.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Whitney Ames' gun-case, with which General Butler is mixed up, came up for a hearing this morning before United States Commissioner Clephane. Whitney, who is Butler's confidential clerk, was examined as a witness. He tried to shield Butler, and make it appear that the latter had nothing to do with the attempt to extort money from Ames for getting from the Navy Department a gun contrast. partment a gun contract.

The Ames party say they have evidence which shows conclusively that Whitney acted as a mere figure-head, and that Butler was the real party in the matter. It is said that Butler will be here this week to make his own defense.

German Rejoicings. The Germans are out to-day in large number a celebrating the Prussian victories. This is the first day of the fall meeting of the Washington Schuetzen verein, and previous to going to their park the society paraded through the principal streets carry-ing flags of the North German Confederation with American colors and large photographs of King William and Bismarck. Nearly the whole German population turned out, and the Schuetzen Park is unusually crowded.

ILLNESS OF CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

An Alarming Attack with Painful Symptoms Convalence of the Distinguished Invalid. Convalescence of the Distinguished lavalid.

The announcement made exclusively in the Sum on Friday morning of the recent atarming illness of Chief Justice Chase has created a profound sensation, not alone in this city, but throughout the country, and we have been flooded with inquiries, both personal and by telegraph, regarding the present condition of the distinguised invalid. In order to satisfy this vniversal solicitude, we have taken much pains to ascertain the particulars of the Chief Justice's illness.

condition of the distinguised invalid. In order to satisfy this vniversal solicitude, we have taken much pains to ascertain the particulars of the Chief Justice's illness.

Judge Chase has spent the summer in extended travel, in company with his daughter, Miss Chase, and Mr. Boswell Riggs. For several weeks preceding the Chief Justice's filness the party were enjoying the cooler climate of the Lake Superior region, from which they returned in the very midst of the late heated term. They stopped at Rochester for a few days, where the Chief Justice, despite the warning of his friends, insisted on walking about a great deal, even refusing to carry an umbrella for protection against the perpendicular rays of the san. On the 18th of Angust he was prostrated, seemingly from the effects of his exposure to the intense heat. A physician was at once called and the patient promptly put under treatment. Whether by advice of this medical attendant, or at the urgent solicitation of his friends—it has not be a secertained which—the invalid was placed in a special drawing-room ceach on the eveding of his attack and brought through to this city by the Central and Hudson River Railroad, and taken to the Hoffman House, where comfortable apartments had been secured for him by telegraph. Here he was met by Senator Spragne and Mrs. Sprague, the Chief Justice's daughter. The Rochester medical attendant accompanied the patient to this city, and has since remained in professional charge of him. An eminent practitioner of New York was also summoned to counsel. The jurious results, though the invalid was unconscious and extremely low at the time, and but little hope was entertained of his recovery. For several days he remained utterly helpiess and nearly senseless, and the gradual return to conscious-ness that followed, and at the expration of ten days he was able to resume his journey to Rhode Island accompanied by the friends mentioned; and at last accounts his convalescence was proceeding rapidly at the residence of Senator Sprague, h

Reporter—But, Doctor, Judge Chase is a public man, and the public are naturally solicitous regard-ing his condition.

Doctor—Public or private, it makes no difference. I was called to his bedside professionally, and I have no right to communicate my knowledge of his malady.

Reporter—I certainly do not wish you to violate any professional confidence in this matter; but it does seem to me that there can be no impropriety in your stating in a general way the nature of the Judge's attack, and his present condition.

Doctor—Well, sir, it is sufficient for the public to know that Judge Chase has been seriously ill, and that he is now better.

Reporter—Is that all the information you feel at liberty to impart?

Doctor—That is all that concerns the public to Reporter-I learn that the Judge's attack was Reporter—I learn that the Judge's attack was rather the effect of the heat than a paralytic stroke, as at first reported. Is that correct?

Doctor—I can give no further information. He has been very sick, perhaps dangerously so; but I think I can now safely say that he is better. Indeed, I have letters from him to that effect. He is now out of all immediate danger.

This being all the information obtainable, the reporter withdrew.—N. Y. Sun to-day.

N. Y. MONEY MARKET ON SATURDAY.

From the N. Y. Herald. "The exciting events in Europe during the past week have had their reflection in the various departments on Wall street, although the actual changes in prices have not been so wide as might have been anticipated. Very naturally the most activity was displayed in the Gold Room, where the price fluctuated between the extremes of 117's and 114—the latter point being attained at the wall street, although the actual changes in prices were not been so wide as might have been asticipated. Very naturally the most activity was displayed in the Gold Room, where the price fluctuated between the extremes of 1174, and 114—the latter point being attained at the close of the week immediately upon the confirmation of the intelligence of the surrender of Napoleon and the capitulation of his armies in the eastern portion of France. The situation even at this moment is not without its perplexities to the speculative dealers of the street, for the future of the France-Frussian war is not so definitely determined as to leave the migd of Wall street vices as to the course which the markets will take. In analyzing the feeling in the Gold Room we find that from the course of the course which the markets will take.
